

IR remote control

350-20067

4 year
warranty

This remote control unit is used to set up the flush-mounting presence detector using infrared signals. It allows the factory settings to be changed, including the daylight factor (lux value), the time period during which the light remains on and the sensitivity of the ultrasonic sensor, among other things.

Compatible articles: 350-20065

Technical data

IR remote control

- Marking: CE

